

2025 Congress of the International Society of Vascularized Composite Allotransplantation

Call for Letter of Intent to Host the 2025 Congress

Dear Colleagues,

The International Society of Vascularized Composite Allotransplantation (ISVCA) aims to serve its scientific community in providing a forum for the open exchange of knowledge and expertise in order to promote vascularized composite allotransplantation as a safe, ethical and effective therapeutic modality.

ISVCA Congress History

Every two years, the ISVCA Congress brings together clinicians and scientists from all parts of the world in the fields of vascularized composite allotransplantation.

The most recent Congress was hosted on Jun 4-6 in Cancun, Mexico and the 2023 Congress is in the planning process, but a date and location have not yet been confirmed.

Your Letter of Intent should include a brief description of the following:

- ï Designation and Description of the proposed Local Organizing Committee (LOC)
